Career of the Day Wednesday

Translator/Interpreter

Date 16/02/2022

Introduction

The translator is a specialist who can interpret a written text and translate it back in the language of expertise. As a translator, you should have knowledge of the country or the state's culture (where the text and language are connected), so that you can translate it meaningfully. An interpreter is a specialist who interprets an oral conversation. Most of the times, as an interpreter, you will translate the conversation on both sides. You should be quick to comprehend the oral content to interpret it. In both these professions, one thing that you need is love for languages. (Punjab Career Portal)
